

Lakeshore Yacht Harbour Books, Boats and Beverages Fall of 2023

Hello Books, Boats and Beverage Lovers,

We had a wonderful discussion on our last book pick, Killers of the Flower Moon.

Thank you Mary Mead for leading the conversation and to Linda and Mary M. for providing the delicious treats. We are sad that the LYH boating season is nearing its end of the 2023 season, but look forward to seeing you all through our Zoom meeting in October.

Our next LYH Book Club will be on Sunday, October 22nd, 2023 at 11:00 AM. A Zoom link will be sent out about a week before that date. Our book choice for the session is The Wager by David Grann. Yes, we are reading the newest book from the same author as last month. We loved his writing style and the historical content of his book.

A review from a reader:

Well here I am up at 5:00 am reading the darn thing. It is a page turner so we'll crafted it is destined to be an American classic. It's so engaging. I am not usually a reader of this type of historical account but the author's research from logs etc brings the reader along this incredible true story as if he himself had smashed against those rocks with the crew. The audio version narrated by Dion Graham is spectacular tour de force.

Happy Reading and see you in October,

Nelli Koster: Slip 19

Larry Ross: Slip 21

Some titles that our membership shared as being worthy reading:

Jesus and John Wayne by Kristin Kobes Du Men

The Red Notice by Bill Browder

Tom Lake by Ann Patchett

Gentleman in Moscow by Amor Towles

Hello Beautiful by Ann Napolitano